PEN AND SCISSOR GRAPHS

A. B. Calvert has been elected Mayor of Spartanburg.

Earthquake shocks were felt all over California Monday.

"Doc" J. M. Caldwell, who for nearly 20 years has been head clerk at the Central Hotel at Florence, is dead.

Judge Gary has rendered his decision in the Alliance case and orders the appointment of a receiver to take charge of the $17,000 of Alliance funds.

Cardinal Giuseppe Sarto was elected as Pope Leo's successor on Tuesday at Tuesday at 11 o'clock. He is 63 years of age and an Italian.

Florence is enforcing the vagrant law and every loafer without visible means of support is "pulled" right and left by the police and carried before the Mayor. If every community would do this we would hear less of robberies and violations of the peace.

COMING TO BENNETTSVILLE.

Mr. John W. LeGrand of Rockingham Will Practice Law in Bennettsville.

[Anglo-Saxon, Rockingham, July 30]

We regret to chronicle the departure from our midst of Mr. and Mrs. John W. LeGrand. They left Monday to go to the home of Mrs. LeGrand's parents at Brightsville in Marlboro county, S. C. They expect to spend a few weeks with Mrs. LeGrand's parents after which they will remove to Bennettsville, where Mr. LeGrand will engage in the practice of law.

Mr. LeGrand is a native of this country. He was licensed to practice law in 1900, and the past three years has engaged in the practice here in Rockingham. During that time he has taken a prominent stand at the bar in the county, and has won for himself many friends. He was married last October to Miss Mary Elizabeth Liles, the accomplished daughter of Mr. J. R. Liles, of Bennettsville, S. C. We extend to our departing friends our best wishes.

Mr. LeGrand and his wife will be in town to Bennettsville, Saturday and engaged rooms for the present at Mrs. Turner's. The DEMOCRAT extends a hearty welcome.

The S. C. State Fair.

The premium list for the next State Fair has been issued. It offers many attractive and valuable prizes. Send to A. W. Love Chester, for a copy. It is not too early to begin preparations to send enough exhibits to capture Marlboro's share of prizes offered this year.

One fact should make many new exhibitors for the next fair—the Society pays the freight on all exhibits grown or produced in this State, thus enabling exhibitor to be sent to and returned from the fair without cost to the exhibitor.

A certain pupil of the public schools was recently asked to write an essay on the human body and this was the result:

"The human body consists of the head, thorax, abdomen and legs. The head contains the brains in case there are any. The thorax contains the heart and lungs, also the liver and lights. The abdomen contains the bowels, of which there are five—a, e, i, o, u, and sometimes w and y. The legs extend from the abdomen to the floor, and have hinges at the top and middle to enable a fellow to sit when standing or to stand when sitting."—Albany Journal.

M. J. Finnegan of our city had a friend by the name of Frank L. Damm who resides near Senator When Mr. Damm heard of Mr. Finnegan's marriage not long ago he wrote him a letter of congratulation and added: "Please accept the congratulations of the whole Damm family."—Lacon (Ill) Home Journal.

According to an exchange, the man who went out to milk and sat on a rock in the middle of the pasture and waited for the cow to back up, was a brother to a man, who kept store and wouldn't advertise because he reasoned that the purchasing public would back up to his place of business when it wanted something.

FROM BRIGHTSVILLE.

What Was Seen and Heard by a Visitor.

The meeting at Antioch church closed Friday afternoon amid the shouts of new-born souls and general rejoicing of the people of God from the various churches around. It did seem a pity that the meeting should close just at that time with the altar crowded with penitents and souls being saved every day, but the meeting at Boykin was to commence on Sunday and preacher and people needed a day's rest. We predict a great and glorious meeting at Boykin this week, for Brightsville circuit has a preacher worthy of his calling, and the people of the charge should feel truly grateful to the S. C. conference for keeping them supplied with such preachers as Revs. Baker and Shuler, for they are worthy of as good preachers as the conference affords—a generous, kind hearted people, that believe in religion and a plenty to eat—ever ready to stand by their pastor through evil as well as good report, as has been demonstrated in the past. Rev. Shuler was assisted at Antioch by Revs. Atrial, Parry, Peele and McFarlan.

The crops in Brightsville section are very good, especially corn, and the cotton, though somewhat late, will compare favorably with last year, and with the present rain, I think there will be an extra good crop if nothing happens to it from now on. The farmers seem to be in fine spirit and everything points to prosperity.

New buildings are going up in every direction, and all business seems to be thriving, and a general good time seems to be coming to those who continue to labor and to wait. Friends, continue to lift up your eyes and look to the hills from whence cometh all our help.

CUPID'S WORK.

Married in this town on Friday evening last by Rev. A. B. Watson of the Methodist church, Mr. Thos Moore, the popular young salesman at C. B. Crosland's and Miss Martha Goodwin, the pretty and accomplished daughter of E. W. Goodwin of Brightsville. The DEMOCRAT extends hearty congratulations.

Married in this town Wednesday morning August 5, 1903, at 7.30 o'clock, at the residence of the bride on King street, by Rev. R. Ford of the Baptist church, Mr. John J. Pearson to Miss Anna Hadden, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hadden.

The contracting parties are too well known for a word of introduction, and the happy consummation of a long courtship is a source of most hearty congratulation by the many friends of both in and out of Bennettsville. Indeed, it was a clever surprise to all, as no invitations were issued, and only the closest friends were let into the secret and were present at the marriage.

The happy couple left Wednesday morning on the 8.30 train for Mt. Airy where they will spend their honeymoon.

A goodly number of friends preceded them to the depot and tied an old shoe at each end of the coach, and as the bride and groom approached the train showered them with rice.

DEATHS' DOINGS.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Caroll, will hear with regret of their sad bereavement in the death of their infant babe Dorothy Davenport, on Wednesday afternoon, after a long illness, aged about 2 years. The funeral services were held at Oak Ridge cemetery Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Died at her home in Brightsville on Tuesday afternoon, August 4th, 1903, after a protracted illness Mrs. Jackson Stubbs, aged about 85.

She was a sister of the late Arthur Bright and grand-daughter of Chas. Bright the founder of Brightsville. She leaves a devoted husband and a host of relatives. The remains were laid to rest in the family burying-ground Wednesday afternoon.

"Weep not that her toils are over, Weep not that her race is run; God grant we rest as calmly When our work like hers is done!"

Died at her home in Clito on Saturday afternoon after a protracted illness. Mrs. Viola Ivey, beloved wife of Mr. L. Ivey. She leaves a devoted husband and five small children. The funeral services were held at the Quick graveyard Sunday morning conducted by Rev. Welcome Quick.

A lot of men take vacation in order that they may experience the delight of getting back to work again.

C. S. MCALL,

The South Carolina College.

The South Carolina College is founded on the 1st of January, 1863, and will celebrate its centennial in January, 1963. The College was chartered in 1863 and opened for active work in January, 1865. It owes its existence to patriotic purpose, the education of all the youth of the State at a common school, "in order to promote the instruction, good order and the harmony of a whole community," and it was built, in a portion of the proceeds of a reimbursement made by the United States to South Carolina for expenses incurred during the Revolution. During the century that is closing the College has contributed largely to the advancement of the State, and the high moral standards that have prevailed in South Carolina and her sister States. The roll of College Alumni contains the names of men who have become noted in all the pursuits of life, both in peace and war. The struggles of the struggle between the States closed the college in 1863, and the buildings were used as hospitals for sick and wounded Confederates. But as soon as peace was restored the institution was reopened by the "Ordinance of Secession," and the college has since that time been continuously open, and has educated hundreds of young men and a number of young women. For some years have been permitted to partake of its advantages. Originally the College was known as a literary institution, although from early times it faculty contained students of great ability, but of late years its courses have broadened out so as to embrace also technical scientific instruction, instruction in law and a course in practical methods for teachers.

President Benjamin Sloan, the head of the Department of Physics and Mathematics, is a graduate of West Point and was a distinguished officer of the army during the war between the States. His graduates in engineering are now occupying most responsible positions in different parts of the United States. Professor Joseph Daniel Pope, dean of the Law Department, has a wide experience in government in the executive halls of the State and in the discussion Convention, and is recognized as high authority in law and in equity jurisprudence. Some of the other members of the faculty have had distinguished careers in this College, while others have brought to it the best methods of colleges and universities elsewhere.

The most recent and most important addition to the college has been made in the usefulness of the College in the establishment of scholarships to be given to one man-teacher in each county who has taught at least one year. This is intended to offer the advantages of professional training to one who has already gathered practical experience in direct contact with pupils in the school room and realizes the difficulties that must be surmounted. Professor Ward, who is at the head of the department in pedagogy, is eminent in his profession both as a student and as a practical teacher and school superintendent.

The College is situated at the capital of the State and affords to the student opportunity for studying the workings of the government in a direct and accessible form from all parts of the State and in a healthful locality. The religious advantages in exceptional because of the fact that the denomination has a preponderant congregation in "Southern" churches. Expenses are moderate. There is a full range of three rooms for each of students, warm in winter and well ventilated in summer. A large hall, two croquet grounds and a baseball athletic field afford ample opportunity for exercise.

The College is increasing in usefulness and in popularity with the increased prestige of the State, and the growth of the college is a constant institution will surpass the achievements of the past.

A Kansas farmer planted his farm in popcorn and gathered it into his barn. The barn took fire, the corn popped and filled the barn and froze to death.

The South Carolina College for Teachers.

Although nearly approaching its centennial anniversary, the South Carolina College shows none of the decrepitude of age, but rather increasing signs of vigorous life. A new departure of great importance to the College and to the State has been inaugurated. For some years the College has had a department of pedagogy, for the training of teachers. Last winter, for the first time, the Legislature created a number of endowed normal scholarships, one for each of the counties. The intention of the Trustees and Faculty to set these scholarships upon a high plane, and to seek thereby to qualify superior young men for the work of leadership and influence in our public schools. However largely women may be employed as teachers, the work of superintendence, direction and control must continue to be most largely in the hands of the men; and it is to supply these teachers of leadership and influence, in the community as well as in the schools, that the College will chiefly through these scholarships. Hence, to young men under nineteen years of age will be eligible, and preference will be given to those applicants who have already taught with success for at least one year.

A special and technical course of study has been established, on a high practical plane; and it is intended that this department shall be worthy of the title of "College for Teachers." All the work will be done in the College, and apart from the regular College classes, the Trustees and Faculty feel sure that in preparing a body of strong and well equipped men for the work of leadership and influence in the community as well as in the schools, that the College will chiefly through these scholarships. Hence, to young men under nineteen years of age will be eligible, and preference will be given to those applicants who have already taught with success for at least one year.

The present session, now nearly ended, has been very encouraging. Not a ripple has disturbed the internal peace of the College. The new President has won general opinion, and has more than maintained the confidence and affection of his colleagues and the faculty. The friends of the College look hopefully forward to the continued success of this second century of this venerated institution, which will soon enter upon its second century of honorable history.

To the Women of the Pee Dee Counties.

A Pee Dee Historical Society was organized and chartered at Florence yesterday. It is composed of men of such character as to give confidence in its future success and usefulness. Such an organization means much for the future welfare of this section of the State. More than any other section we need an organization of this kind, for more than any other section of this much neglected state, we are overlooked in the writing of history. But we need female auxiliary societies for nothing is truer than that selected assertion of Talleyrand's: "If you would accomplish any great thing in this world, you must get the women going." We wish to "get the women going" in the Pee Dee counties.

The Historical Society. Daughters of the Revolution and the United Daughters of the Confederacy are organized in every county of the State, and earnestly co-operating with all societies in awakening sentimentality, gathering material for the preservation and embodying in convenient and enduring form the history of the Pee Dee people. Hoping for early and encouraging reports from our patriotic women, I am, respectfully,

John J. Dargan, Sec. Pee Dee His Association, Clyde, S. C., July 3, 1903.

MAKES COOKING A PLEASURE.

When ASHCRAFT'S Condition Powders are fed to horses and mules, marked improvement will be seen after the first few doses. There is no doubt about it. The Powders, acting directly on the digestive organs, first thoroughly cleanses the stomach and bowels, correcting all disorders, and then good healthy appetite comes naturally and surely. It is the most powerful tonic and appetizer on the market to-day, and when once used the horseman will have no other.

Ashcraft's Powders produce that silky sheen of coat and hair so admired by horse fanciers. The Powders fatten but never bloat. Always high grade and put up in doses—never in bulk.

By the use of three or four doses a week your horse or mule will not be subject to colic or any disease of the stomach and bowels.

"I had an old horse that was in very bad condition generally. He was thin and had a blood disease that was causing the hair to come off. I gave the horse three doses of Ashcraft's Condition Powders a day for seven days and fed him liberally. The appetite improved from the first dose and the animal gained fifty-two pounds in flesh during that time and gave three doses a day. The general health of the animal was greatly improved by the use of the powders and he was made almost a new horse. I most highly recommend Ashcraft's Condition Powders, as I know they are a splendid tonic and appetizer."—C. G. SIKES, Livestock Dealer, Monroe, La.
